

Sustaining Engagement & Accountability in Your Cohort

Lori Abbott

Greatest Fear or Challenge

New or Returning CCF?

SHARE...

- If you are a New or Returning CCF
- New: your greatest FEAR or Returning: your greatest CHALLENGE

Reflect on Engagement

Engaging Adults

- Candidate Input
- Connection to Experience
- Collaboration
- Implementation and Reflection

STRATEGIES

ASSES the AUDIENCE

Understand where they're at and what they would really benefit from learning

MANAGE & FACILITATE CONVERSATION

Steer the conversation in a positive direction and keep it collaborative and on topic

HIGH-VALUE DELIVERABLES

Provide valuable resources during the session

APPLICATION to PRACTICE

Stay focused on real-world applications and engage in role-playing activities

POSITIVE REINFORCEMENT

Praise and reinforce candidates when they're on target with the learning outcomes

ACCOUNTABILITY

PARTICIPATION

Remind candidates that there are RESPONSIBILITIES and BENEFITS of belonging to a COHORT

HOMEWORK

- Always have a plan for candidates who don't do the homework.
- Consider allowing periods of time during the session for specific writing.

QUESTIONS

